The Gift of Yum!

Need a little something for a grown-up stocking (like your own)? Try these:

1 SNAPPY! The gingerbread man better run faster: The tingly ginger in these natural chews is a holiday flavor at full sprint. Chimes Ginger Chews; $2.99

2 CHOCOLICIOUS Drinkable chocolate truffles are as insanely delicious as they sound and totally stocking-stuffable in these mini-packets. Available in peppermint and classic chocolate flavors. Bellagio Gourmet Hot Cocoa; $1.29

3 FUN, SQUARED These squares make for a fab foodie tasting game: Each one highlights a note in the chocolate, like citrus, nut, or fruit. Break them out at a holiday gathering, then compare flavors using the chart. Tcho six-bar taster; $5.50

4 AT FIRST BITE An old-school treat, all gussied up! Salted bourbon caramel is smooshed between a marshmallow and a graham cracker. And then it's all dipped in dark artisan chocolate. Norman Love S'more Love; $12

5 HAUTE CHOCOLATE This dark-chocolate brick complements the tannins in full-bodied wines like Cabernet and Bordeaux. Just fracture it into bite-size morsels, sip, eat, and repeat. Brix Extra Dark Chocolate for Wine; $12.99

6 GET HOOKED These elegant canes are made by hand, the same way they were in 1922. Hammond's Candies Candy Cane; $3.50
