

Business

B8

THURSDAY, APRIL 14, 2011

IN BRIEF

Families to receive nutrition education

This Easter, Norman Love Confections has partnered with the Red Sox Foundation to raise money for Community Cooperative Ministries Inc. to launch Food Factory, a program to teach families how to prepare nutritious and affordable meals.

The sixth annual Bunnies for Babies, which showcases special egg and bunny centerpieces by Norman Love artisans, will support the cause, along with some baseball-themed Easter creations.

LOVE

Egg, bunny centerpieces showcased

The Red Sox Foundation will give away a pair of Fenway Park tickets and autographed memorabilia with its tasty chocolate counterparts.

Those who purchase a $5 raffle ticket and donate nonperishable food also will receive a free ticket.

Tickets are available at Norman Love salons in Fort Myers and Naples, City of Palms Park in Fort Myers and CCMI, at 3429 Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Blvd. The drawing will be noon April 22 at the Chocolate Salon in Fort Myers at 11380 Lindbergh Blvd., east of Interstate 75 off Daniels Parkway.

Tickets are available at Norman Love salons in Fort Myers and Naples, City of Palms Park in Fort Myers and CCMI, at 3429 Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Blvd. The drawing will be noon April 22 at the Chocolate Salon in Fort Myers at 11380 Lindbergh Blvd., east of Interstate 75 off Daniels Parkway.

Tickets are available at Norman Love salons in Fort Myers and Naples, City of Palms Park in Fort Myers and CCMI, at 3429 Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Blvd. The drawing will be noon April 22 at the Chocolate Salon in Fort Myers at 11380 Lindbergh Blvd., east of Interstate 75 off Daniels Parkway.