

SWEET TOOTH

Beyond Bunnies: Incredible (and Tasty) Chocolate Easter Treats

At some point between the first century and today, Easter Sunday somehow became associated with chocolate. And not just any chocolate, but sweet stuff molded to look like bunnies, eggs, and any other shape that screams "springtime!" Here are ten of the more impressive varieties, courtesy of the world's top chocolatiers.

EASTER EGGS AT NORMAN LOVE CONFECTIONS

Naples, and Ft. Myers, Florida

When it comes to chocolate Easter eggs, your choices are usually limited to dark, milk, or white—unless you're shopping at Norman Love Confections. Each Easter, the Florida-based chocolatier handcrafts eight limited-edition Easter eggs which—with their pastel polka dots—are as lovely to look at as they are delicious to eat. This year's roster includes butterscotch, caramel crunch, creamy peanut butter, lemon drop, strawberry shortcake, and vanilla pudding.
