Forget the hollow bunnies and sugared marshmallows — this Easter your egg could be filled with artisan chocolates or fine gemstones.

Long-time friends Norman Love and Mark Loren have teamed up to pack 36 Easter eggs and hide them in Lee and Collier Counties.

These eggs aren't stuffed with ordinary mystery flavored jelly beans. Instead, lucky hunters will find either a voucher for Love's artisan chocolates or other offerings from Norman Love Confections, or a gemstone and a gift certificate to have the stone set into a custom-designed piece by Mark Loren.

Vouchers will include instructions on how to redeem the prizes.

Two of the eggs will be gold and have special surprises inside as part of the "EGGstraordinary" Giveaway.

Both Love and Loren enjoy unexpected giveaways and see it as a special way to treat area residents. And it's also fun, not just for the recipients, but for the two business owners.

"After I make a drop, I like to hide nearby, waiting and watching for someone to find it, and then watch for the look on their face," explained Loren in a press release. "It brings me as much joy as it does the winners."

The hunt is in March 19-27 for 26 eggs stuffed with goodies from Norman Love and Mark Loren. (Photo: special to news-press)

Bags with the eggs will be placed at businesses, events and other high-traffic areas. The hunt is on March 19-27, the week before Easter.

Prize winners who post on social media using #LoveLorenEggHunt will be entered into a grand prize drawing. Clues will be given by both companies on their social media sites daily.

May the hunt (and eggs) be ever in your favor.
