

Local chocolatier to judge international competition

Daily News staff

Posted October 25, 2013 at 8:09 p.m.

Norman Love

Local chocolatier Norman Love was en route to Paris Friday where he's scheduled to judge an international competition dedicated to the sugary treat.

The World Chocolate Masters is an international competition that Love himself once participated in and has judged in the past. This year he's the head judge, overseeing a panel of 10 experts from around the world who will be tasting masterpieces by the top chefs in the industry.

Competitors will be judged for their artistic and technical skills while making chocolate pastries and desserts.

Love has chocolate shops in Fort Myers and Naples.

The competition will be broadcast live online at www.worldchocolatemasters.com/en/. The competition begins Monday and lasts through Wednesday.

© 2013 Naples Daily News. All rights reserved. This material may not be published, broadcast, rewritten or redistributed.