Ricki's perfume smells like violets—and so should her bouquet.

A gorgeous way to highlight her cheekbones. Diamond drop earrings, $9,600, kwiat.com.

IF WE PLANNED RICKI'S DAY...

»» Talk-show queen Ricki Lake will marry jewelry designer Christian Evans this spring. We envision a grand, glittery affair worthy of the Dancing With the Stars alum's newfound passion for sambas, sequins, and all things sparkly.

We'd love to see her show off that new waistline in a ball gown with an asymmetrically draped bodice; $8,385, monique lhuillier.com.

She hearts Italian food—hello, honeymoon on the Amalfi Coast. (For more deets about this hot spot, turn to page 234.)

The "two step" design on this letterpress invite scores a 10; $1,800 for 100 (including RSVPs), regasny.com.

Mirror Ball, schmirror ball: We'd rather have a rhinestone-encrusted minaudière; $265, Franchi; S + T, 718-375-2000.

These disco-fied T-straps are made for dancing; $245, Badgley Mischka; Nordstrom, 206-303-2046.

These gemlike chocolates combine two of Ricki's favorite things; $5.75 for a two-piece box, nomanlove confections.com.

The mom of two calls fiancé Christian Evans her soul mate.
